	N		N	Ni

4/30/02	Israeli Troops Remain In Hebron	Sudarsan Raghavan & Daniel Rubin (Knight Ridder plus some Wash. Post)	Medium	A3	yes, large			Text is neutral. It reports on Hebron, Ramallah, and the UN probe into Jenin situations. Photo (which will evoke sympathy with Palestinians) shows Israeli troops escorting 2 blindfolded Palestinians in Hebron.
	N		N	Ni	PLi
4/30/02	Arafat's Accountant Prime Target For Israelis	Tracy Wilkinson & Robin Wright (LA Times)	Medium	A3	no	yes		The article reports that Israel wants to question accountant Shubaki to obtain info that will adversely reflect on Arafat support and involvement with terrorism.
	I		I	Ii
5/01/02	Collapse Looms For U.N. Probe In Jenin	Sudarsan Raghavan, Elise Ackerman & Daniel Rubin (Knight Ridder & Wash. Post)	Medium	A1 & A9	no			Neutral. It presents U.N. and Israeli points of view while sticking to the facts.
	N		N	Nf
5/01/02	Arafat Making Another Narrow Escape	Laura King (Assoc. Press)	Medium	A9	no			The article is neutral. It presents responses and expectations on Arafat now that he is no longer confined in the Ramallah compound.
	N		N	Ni
5/02/02	An Angry Arafat Freed	Combined Wire Services	Large	A1	yes, large			Neutral. There is a large picture of an angry Arafat after his exit from his Ramallah compound. The article reports on the Israeli withdrawal from the Ramallah compound, the Church of Nativity stand-off, the arrest of 6 Palestinians that were holed up with Arafat, disagreement over U.N. Jenin investigation, etc.
	N		N	Nf	PLf

5/02/02	U.S., Saudis Unite To Push For Peace-But How Hard?	Warren P. Strobel (Knight Ridder)	Medium	A6	no			Neutral. The article talks about how Middle East peace efforts will be pursued.
	N		N	Ni
5/03/02	A Global Conference Call	Alan Sipress (Wash. Post)	Large	A1	no			The neutral article reports efforts to organize an international peace conference.
	N		N	Nf
5/03/02	STANDOFF: Inside The Church, Defiance Tempered By Deprivation	T. Christian Miller (L.A.Times) with A.P. and Wash. Post contributions	Medium	A1	yes, large		yes	The article presents stories sympathetic to the Palestinians holed up in the Church of the Nativity. Photo shows Israeli soldiers struggling with "peace activists" seeking to bring food & medicine to Palestinians inside the Church. There are more stories similar to above. Photo shows Israeli soldier with automatic weapon near Manger Square in front of the Church, overturned vehicle, and Israeli tank.
			Large	A14	yes, large		yes
			P	PM PL	Pf Pi PLf PLi
5/03/02	House, Senate Pass Resolutions Backing Israel	David Lightman (Courant)	Large	A15	no	yes		The article reports on Congress' pro-Israel resolutions.
	I		I	Ii
5/03/02	Evidence Indicating No Massacre In Jenin	T. Christian Miller (L.A.Times)	Medium	A15	no	yes		The article reports on the growing consensus that no massacre occurred in Jenin. This result agrees with Israel's position and is contrary to Palestinian allegations. (It is noted that this article is far removed from the front page, although the massacre allegations were a top story.)
	I		I	Ii
5/04/02	Peace Plan Building In Shadows Of Conflict	Doug Struck (Wash. Post)	Medium	A10	no		yes	The article contains often cited reports by UN or "rights" agency allegations of Israeli brutalities that are often found to be lies or gross exaggerations. Yet there is no criticism of Palestinian terrorist acts.
	N		P	Pi
5/05/02	Pace Of Church Talks Quickens	Ibrahim Hazboun (Assoc. Press)	Medium	A6	yes, large			Neutral. It reports on Israeli-Palestinian talks regarding the Church of the Nativity standoff and plans for a Middle East peace conference. Photo shows Israeli soldiers rushing past burning

	N		N	Ni	PLi			building in Bethlehem
5/05/02	My Israel	Steve Malech	Large	N.E. Mag		yes		Northeast Magazine printed S. Malech's accounting of his family's visit to Israel for Passover and coinciding with Palestinian terrorist bombings against Israelis.
	I		I	Ii
5/06/02	Bethlehem Standoff Nears End	Doug Struck (Wash. Post)	Large	A1	no		yes	While the article talks about an imminent deal to free those in the Church, it has much emphasis on the plight of those in the Church and the impact on Bethlehem - characterizing them as victims.
	N		P	Pf
5/06/02	Sharon's Goal In U.S.: Dislodge Arafat	Daniel Rubin (Knight Ridder)	Large	A7	no	yes		The report mainly provides information that the Israeli's have that will show Arafat and the PA leadership are behind terrorism. This major issue was located on page 7.
	N		I	Ii
5/07/02	Different Strategies For Peace	Strobel, Enda, and Kuhnhenh (Knight Ridder)	Large	A1, A8	no		yes	This report emphasizes differences in Bush's and Sharon's ideas for pursuing peace and is construed as critical of Sharon/Israel for differing with Bush.
	N		P	Pf
5/07/02	Exile Clouds Bethlehem Talks	Greg Myre (Assoc. Press)	Large	A9	no			Neutral
	N		N	Ni
5/07/02	Young Israelis Work For Peace	Amy Pagnozzi (Courant)	medium					The article is relatively balanced, but laced with anti-Israeli comments. The article presents the author's interview of Israeli youths attending Children's Forum at UN.
	I		N	Ni
	P		P	Pf

5/08/02	Deadly Suicide Blast Rips Israeli Club	Lee Hockstader and Doug Struck (Wash. Post)	Large	A4	yes, medium		yes	This article is deemed pro-Palestinian because it does not go very far to convey that there was a terrible carnage inflicted on civilians including children. The photo accompanying the article shows 2 men standing in a destroyed room, but it does not convey the human suffering and bodies torn apart by the Palestinian homicide bomber. The article quotes Hamas and Arafat, thus directing attention to them instead of Israeli victims. The report conveys in a matter of fact manner that the terrorist attacks are just the way it is and will be.
	P		P	Pi	PMi
5/08/02	Italy Balks At Deal To End Church Standoff	Mary Curtius and Mark Magnier (L.A. Times)	Medium	A5	no			Neutral
	N		N	Ni
5/09/02	Israel Will Act Strongly	Knight Ridder, L.A. Times, Assoc. Press	Large	A1, A13	yes, medium		yes	This article is labeled pro-Palestinian because in spite of the atrocities that were inflicted on Israelis in the pool hall, the article dwells on politics with little mention of human suffering that is common when reporting on Palestinians. The page 1 photo shows an Israeli robot approaching a Palestinian youth said to be intent on setting off explosives. This may elicit the reader's sympathy toward a homicide bomber rather than victims of such attacks. The headline should have added "...Against Terrorists"
	P		P	Pf	PMf
5/09/02	Combatants Begin Leaving Bethlehem Church	Ibrahim Hazboun (Assoc. Press)	Large	A14	no			Neutral. This report seems to give basically a factual representation of the resolution of the Nativity Church standoff. The headline should read "Terrorists Begin Leaving..." Article was referenced on pg A1.
	N		N	Ni
5/09/02	A Mother Goes Out, Pays With Her Life	Doug Struck (Wash. Post)	Medium	A14		yes		Article reports on an Israeli mother who tried to have a night out and was killed in the pool hall bombing. The headline should read "Israeli Mother...." Article was referenced on pg A1.
	P		I	Ii
5/09/02	U.S. Criticized For Indecision On Mideast	Robin Wright (Special to Courant)	Large	A15	no			Neutral

5/10/02	Israeli Tanks Mobilized Near Gaza	(Wash. Post and Knight Ridder)	Large	A1, A8	yes, large		yes	This article devotes much space to Hamas, but does not adequately convey they are terrorists. The pg A1 photo depicts a sad Palestinian woman and a man searching rubble after Israeli tanks and bulldozers destroyed houses during a raid in Gaza.
	P		P	Pf	PLf
5/10/02	Rice Walks Line On A Palestinian State	(Assoc. Press)	Small	A8	no			This article is neutral. Rice supports Israel but endorses a Palestinian state that will be democratic, not a terrorist entity, etc
	N		N	Ni
5/10/02	Palestinians Begin Leaving Bethlehem Church	Ibrahim Hazboun (Assoc. Press)	Large	A9	no		yes	The article makes statements of "Israel's siege over Christ's reputed birthplace," and "the siege at one of the holiest sites in the Christian world" without mention that Palestinian terrorists purposefully took refuge there as they commonly do in civilian places. Such language and distortion can negatively effect Christian attitudes against Israelis and Jews.
	N		P	Pi
5/10/02	Palestinian Sentiment Builds Against Bombers	Edward Cody (Wash. Post)	Large	A10	no		yes	The title is misleading! This article conveys some Palestinians' dislike of youths carrying out suicide bombings, because their lives are wasted when they are killed without killings Israelis. The Palestinians say only those 21 years or older should be suicide bombers.
	P		P	Pi
5/10/02	Hamas Activists Undaunted By Israel, Arafat	Assoc. Press	Medium	A11	no	yes		This article reports on Hamas' dedication to terror and suicide bombings. The headline should read "Terrorists" not "Activists."

5/11/02	Faithful Asses Church Damage; Troops Poised At Gaza	Chicago Tribune and Wash. Post	Large	A6	no		yes	This article implies Israel is to blame for what happened in the Church of the Nativity (i.e., the mess), although it was the terrorists who used the Church and its members as a shield.
	P		P	Pi
5/12/02	Bethlehem Siege A Daily Struggle	Carolyn Cole (L.A. Times)	Medium	A1	no		yes	This report describes difficult conditions in the Church of the Nativity during the standoff. It portrays Palestinians as victims. Cole had run into the Church with an "activist" group who delivered food. Photo shows photographer Cole escorted out of the Church surrounded by 7 Israeli soldiers. It looks like a powerful army around a defenseless woman, rather than a woman who interfered with a delicate and potentially explosive situation.
	Standoff Marked By Hope, Despair	(continued)	Large	A2	yes, large		yes
	P P		PM PL	Pf Pi	PLi
5/12/02	Israel Delays Plans For Attack On Gaza	Dafna Linzer (Assoc. Press)	Medium	A7	no			Neutral. This article describes a smorgasbord of items, including Gaza, the Israeli pullout form West Bank towns, politics, Palestinian youths killed or injured when acting like bombers sneaking into Israel, etc.
	N		N	Ni
5/12/02	Once Under Siege, Now At Gaza Hotel	Combined wire services	Small	A16	no		yes	This article is about 26 Palestinian "gunmen" who left the Bethlehem Church being treated as heroes including lodging at a "swanky Gaza hotel, with Yasser Arafat covering the bill."
	P		P	Pi
5/13/02	Sharon, Likud Split On Statehood	Chicago Tribune & L.A. Times	Large	A1	no			Neutral. This article reports that the Likud's Central Committee and Netanyahu are opposed to a Palestinian state and the difficulty that caused Sharon. The article is neutral, but a minor internal issue. Why is this large article on pg A1?
	N		N	Nf
5/13/02	Sunday Services Resume At Church Of Nativity	Assoc. Press	Large	A4	yes, medium			Neutral. Photo shows Palestinian worshippers in the Church for Sunday services following the end to the standoff.
	N		N	Ni	NMi

5/13/02	Synagogues Heed Rallying Call For Embattled Israel	Frances Taylor (Courant)	Medium	D1	no	yes		This article reports on synagogues in Greater Hartford area joining a national campaign to raise millions of dollars for Israel as it suffers economic hardship arising from the suicide bombings.
	I		I	Ii
5/14/02		Reuters		A3	yes, large		yes	Large photo accompanied by a paragraph shows Arafat with Palestinians inspecting damage in "battle-scarred" Nablus and it says Israel's Likud party voted to oppose a Palestinian state. Paragraph says Arafat was slammed by US for not ending terrorism and by Palestinians for exiling "militants." The paragraph under the photo is unrelated to the photo, thus creating a distorted image.
					PLi
5/14/02	An Unexpected Trip To An "Un-Holy Land	Amy Pagnozzi (Courant)	Medium		no		yes	Amy writes about Brian Kavanagh's (who co-founded Martin d Porres Catholic Worker House) trip to Jenin shortly after the IDF pulled out. Amy said that Kavanagh described Jenin as like "Hiroshima after the bomb was dropped, Turkey after the earthquake. Jenin was leveled - pulverized." He was concerned about ordnance left by Israelis. Amy does not write about Israelis that are blown to bits by homicide bombers.
	P		P	Pi
5/15/02								No Mideast stories in the Courant this day
5/16/02	Palestinian Parliament Skeptical Of Arafat Proposal	Soraya Sarhaddi Nelson and Alfonso Chardy of Knight Ridder (w/Wash Post)	Medium	A3	no	yes		This article reported on the skeptical response of Palestinians and Israelis to Arafat's proposals for reform. The article recognized corruption and ineffectiveness associated with the PA and lack of specifics in Arafat's proposal.

5/17/02	Arafat Calls For Elections Within Six Months w/subheading Serious Opposition Appears Unlikely	Actually 2 articles under title: First article by Alfonso Chardy (Knight Ridder)	large	A3	no			Neutral
	N		N	Ni
5/17/02	Arafat calls For Elections Within Six Months w/subheading Israeli Forces Re-Enter West Bank City Of Jenin	Second article by Elise Ackerman (Knight Ridder)	large	A3	no			Neutral. This article reports on the IDF re-entering Jenin to thwart new terrorist attacks.
	N		N	Ni
5/18/02								No news articles today
5/19/02	First Challenger To Arafat Steps Forward	Davan MaharaJ (L.A. Times)	Large	A5	no		yes	This article identifies challenger Qassem's position as very anti-Israel and says Arafat is corrupt. He stresses the right of return of refugees to Israel which is a critical position regarding Israel's survival
	N		P	Pi
5/20/02	NO RESPITE FROM VIOLENCE	Edward Cody (Wash. Post) plus Knight Ridder & L.A. Times reports	Large	A1, A8	Yes (large)	yes		This article reports on the carnage a homicide bomber caused in a Netanya market attack but without justifying Palestinian terrorist attacks. A front page photo shows 2 Israeli women comforting each other and a smaller front page photo shows the destruction on the market. The headline does not mention the violence was perpetrated by a Palestinian terrorist.

5/21/02	DISMISSAL ORDERED OF 4 CABINET MEMBERS	Wire services	small	A11	no			Neutral. This article reports that Sharon dismissed cabinet members after the Shars party voted against the government on an emergency economic plan.
	N		N	Ni
5/22/02								No news articles today
5/23/02	Two Israelis Killed In Suicide Bombing	Lee Hockstader and Edward Cody (Wash. Post)	Large	A3	yes, medium			Neutral. This article reports on a night time terrorist attack at a public garden. It also talks about Israeli attacks against Palestinian militants. The accompanying photo shows a wounded Israeli woman being carried to a vehicle to be taken to a hospital.
	P		N	Ni	IMi
5/23/02	Palestinian Play Sparks Concern	Frank Rizzo (Courant)	Medium	B1 & B9	yes, medium			Neutral. This article reports on Jewish leaders questioning a play (that demonizes and stereotypes Israelis) included in New Haven's Arts Festival. The Arts Festival receives $1M from state and is putting on a play called "Alive From Palestine: Stories Under Occupation."
	N		N	Ni	PMi
5/24/02	Bomb Explodes At Israel's Largest Fuel Depot	Yoav Appel (Assoc. Press)	Medium	A3	no	yes		This article reports on the attempt to blow up the fuel depot as well as other terrorist attacks that were thwarted. It also mentions Arafat's need to stop corruption, call elections and streamline his security forces.
	P		I	Ii
5/24/02	Israeli Embassy Fire Investigated	Kim Housego (Assoc. Press)	Large	A28	yes, medium			Neutral. The fire that destroyed the embassy is thought to be a result of an electrical fault, not terrorists. The article also talks about anti-Semitic attacks in France.
	N		N	Ni	IMi
5/25/02	Israel Raids Refugee Camp	Jason Keyser (assoc. Press)	Small	A5	no			Neutral. This article reports on Israel incursions into a West Bank camp following terrorist attacks. "Raids" rather than incursions distorts the headline.
	P		N	Ni
5/26/02	Arab Lobby Gains Clout	David Lightman (Courant)	Large	A1 & A12	Yes, on pg 12 (small)			Neutral. The article reports gains made by Arabs and people/organizations lobbying for Arabs. It also talks about the Israel lobby. Small photos of Arab Americans Geo. Mitchell and Mitch Daniels.
	P		N	Nf	NSi

5/26/02	Israelis Re-Enter Bethlehem In Search For Militants	Greg Myre (Assoc. Press)	Large	A9	no			Neutral. The article is about Israeli incursions into West Bank and Gaza areas looking for "Militants," although it covers in detail Palestinians casualties.
	N		N	Ni
5/28/02	U.S. Debates Mideast Strategy	Alan Sipress and Daniel Williams (Wash. Post) An Assoc. Press report is included.	Large	A1 & A5	no			Neutral. This article reports on the Bush administration's thinking about publicly detailing terms for a final Middle East settlement. It also includes a report about the Palestinian suicide bomber's attack at a Petah Tikva shopping mall (near Tel Aviv) that killed at least 2 Israelis and injured more than 20 others. It does not include any photos of the carnage or suffering caused by the bomber, nor is the terrorist attack reflected in the headline.
	N		N	Nf
5/29/02	Beauty And The Beasts	Matthew Brown (Courant)	Medium	A1 and A10	no	yes		The article is about contestants from Arab countries refusing to participate in the Miss Universe contest taking place in Puerto Rico because Ms. Israel is entered. It covers other conflicts as well.
	N		I	If
5/29/02	4 Israelis Killed In West Bank	Wash. Post	Medium	A6	no			Neutral. The article reports on a number of Palestinian attacks, from "gunmen" as well as bombers, on Israeli civilian targets despite Israeli raids to capture "militants."
	P		N	Ni
5/30/02	Militant Group Finding Teenagers Eager To Join	Mohammed Daraghme (Assoc. Press)	Medium	A14	no			Neutral. The report states that the Al Aqsa Martyrs Brigade is rebuilding with an army of volunteers, including teenagers. It says Arafat's gov't has condemned recent bombings, but has not cracked down on terrorist groups so Israel has had to act.
	P		N	Ni
5/31/02	Would-Be Suicide Bomber Recounts Change Of Heart	Celean Jacobson (Assoc. Press)	Medium	A3	yes, small	yes		This report is about a female suicide bomber who changed her mind while she was strapped with the bomb on her way to Jerusalem. She went to her aunt's house instead because she wants to stop the killings. She was ultimately arrested by Israeli security forces. A photo accompanying the article is that of the Palestinian woman. The article was deemed Pro-Israel because it reflects negatively on Palestinian terrorists.

5/31/02	Arafat Signs Law To Form Palestinian Constitution	Wire services	small	A13	no			Neutral. The article reports on the features of the Palestinian constitution including the requirement to provide for families of martyrs.
	N		N	Ni
6/01/02	Photo with title: An Ominous View	Assoc. Press		A2	yes, Medium			Photo with caption that explains it shows a Palestinian woman and girl looking out from barred windows of their Balata refugee camp home as Israeli troops, tanks and armored vehicles close down Nablus. The caption state that the IDF is there in response to attacks on Israeli settlements, including a kindergarten, that killed Israelis.
					PMi
6/02/02	Woman Stole Israeli Identity	Michael Matza (Knight Ridder)	Large	A4	no			Neutral. This is an apparently factual story of a Ukraine woman, married to a Palestinian. She possessed a fake ID of an Israeli woman. She drove the car that carried 2 Palestinian homicide bombers into Israel. One bomber, a 16 year old male, blew himself up and killed and injured Israelis in a Tel Aviv suburb. The other, a woman, decided not to do it and was subsequently captured by the Israelis.
	P		N	Ni
6/02/02	Israelis On West Bank Seek Terror Suspects	Wire services	small	A13	no			Neutral. This article reports about Israeli forces in West Bank towns searching for terrorists.
	I		N	Ni
6/03/02	Arafat Offers Hamas A Role	Greg Myre (Assoc. Press)	Large	A1 and A5	no			Neutral. This article reports on Arafat's offer of cabinet posts in a revised government, to the terrorist organization Hamas. It speculates about Israeli and USA reaction. The article reports on a number of other issues as well, including diplomatic activities and Israeli searches for Palestinian terrorists.
	N		N	Ni
6/03/02	Report: Al Qaeda Vows Attacks	Assoc. Press	small	A5	no			Neutral. This article states that a spokesman for Al Qaeda threatened more attacks on Americans and Jews, in a message in an Arab Sunday newspaper.

6/04/02	Hamas Snubs Arafat's Cabinet Offer	Soraya Sarhaddi Nelson (Knight Ridder) plus Assoc. Press	Medium	A3	no			This neutral article reports on a number of items, even beyond the Hamas snub: (1) Hamas rejects Arafat's offer to join his Cabinet, (2) CIA Director Tenet's plans to meet with Arafat to "pressure" him into consolidating Palestinian security forces to rein in militants and stop suicide bombings, (3) the Palestinian Supreme Court decision to release Ahmed Saadat (leader of group that killed Israeli Tourism minister) that was over turned by the Palestinian Cabinet, and (4) Sharon's statement that Israel would seek to block Saadat's release.
	N		N	Ni
6/05/02	The Six-Day War	Dan Perry (Assoc. Press)	Large	A6& A7	yes, large			Page A1 gave notice of this special report to be found on pg A6. The headline is consistent with the story. The report gives an accounting that considers both Israeli and Palestinian issues. It explains what was occurring at the time just up to the war (Arab armies about to attack) and how Israel defeated the Arabs. There are photos of Nasser, Sharon, Hussein, and Al-Assad. There are drawn maps of the Middle East that convey who was in control of the land surrounding Israel before and after the 6-Day-War. The report provides a historical perspective on events before and after the war, leading to today's difficulties. It even goes back to pre-Roman times when Hebrews settled in the Land of Canaan.
	N		N	Ni	NLi
6/06/02	Israel Back In Arafat's Citadel	Soraya Sarhaddi Nelson and Cliff Churgin (Knight Ridder)	Large	A1	no	yes		This article reports that Israel entered Ramallah and Arafat's compound following a car bombing that blew up a bus killing 16 people. It says U.S. officials used unusually harsh language to criticize Arafat. A large color photo on pg A1 is of a U.S. soccer fan celebrating the U.S. victory over Portugal, rather than a large photo of the horrors of the suicide bombing carnage.
	Israel Enters Ramallah After Car Bomb Killings		Large	A3 cont .	yes, large	yes	A photo on page A3 shows the destroyed Israeli passenger bus. The continued article on pg A3 provides more gruesome details about the terrorist attack against the bus and Israel's military retaliation. The article also states the Netanya bomber tried to use deadly cyanide when he attacked a restaurant but failed due to a technical glitch.
	N N		I I	If Ii	ILi		The location of the photo of the destroyed Israeli bus where the bodies of 16 innocent people were torn apart should have been placed on pg A-1, and the U.S. soccer victory photo on the inside page.

6/07/02	Israeli Response Signals Basic Disdain For Arafat	Mary Curtius (L.A.Times) and AP report is included	Large	A2	yes, medium		yes	The article includes statements that give both sides' positions on the conflict. However, it is critical of positions Sharon has taken and calls him a hawk. Meanwhile, there isn't any criticism of positions Arafat has taken, and it doesn't call him a terrorist or a supporter of terrorism. The article covers a number of things: Israel's feelings about the need for a peace process without including Arafat, the attack at his compound, Israel's call for Palestinian reforms, Arab and USA issues regarding plans for a peace process, and the inconsistencies in the Whitehouse vs. State Dept. views of Arafat. The photo shows a crushed car blocking Arafat's offices and guards emerging from the offices from behind the car.

6/12/02	Bomber Strikes At Restaurant	L.A. Times	Medium	A2	yes, medium			The article is neutral. It's about an Israeli teenage girl killed and 9 others wounded by a bomber at a Herzliya restaurant, three 15-year old Israeli boys injured by a bomb at a Jewish orchard, and other terrorist actions. The report also describes Palestinian objections to Israeli settlements and about Palestinian casualties in shootings and accidental bomb explosions. The article also mentions the IDF "lockdown" of Arafat in Ramallah and Israeli incursions in the West Bank. The photo shows a Palestinian man watching Israel demolish a house in an Arab neighborhood under Israel's control in East Jerusalem because it was allegedly built without a permit. The photo is pro-Palestinian because it portrays the Palestinian as a victim.

6/20/02	Israeli Weapons Industry Prospers	Jim Crane (Courant)	Medium	E1, E2	yes, small		yes	This article is classified pro-Palestinian because it casts Israel in a poor light. The article's theme is that Israel has and is taking advantage of the USA's aid (technically and financially) to compete with the USA in the military weapons market and sell weapons to countries when it may not be in the USA's best interests. It says the USA has spent billions of dollars subsidizing a foreign competitor. The photo shows 2 Israeli soldiers guarding an Israeli Merkava tank at Paris arms fair.

6/21/02	Palestinians Attack Settlement	Mary Curtius and Tracy Wilkinson (L.A.Times)	Large	A1		yes		On balance, this article is favorable to Israel because it shows the Israelis as victims and reports on murderous acts by Palestinian suicide bombers and gunmen including attack on Jewish settlement that killed 4 members of same Israeli family. It notes Israel's fury over the terrorist attacks against civilians. The report also mentions the IDF's re-entry into Palestinian communities, curfews there, and "seizure" of Palestinian territory. The photo shows an Israeli soldier with a gun checking a Palestinian man's ID. Man has little boy on his shoulders. (There was no photo of the settlement that was attacked). The headline should read "Israeli Troops Back In Territory." The word "siez" rather than "incursions" or "moves into" territory, is an imaging distortion and classified as Pro-Palestinian.

6/26/02								While the primary purpose of this review is to focus on how Israel-Palestinian news items are reported in the Courant, it is noted here that significant news items were not reported in the Courant today. One such item is that Bush's aides say Arafat financed the terrorist group that claimed responsibility for a recent bus stop bombing, causing President Bush to alter his peace plans. The second is that Arafat has had stormy relations with Arab leaders, and that may tempt Arab leaders to go along with Bush who called for new Palestinian leadership.
6/27/02	Little Support For Bush's Arafat Policy	Ron Fournier (Assoc. Press)	Medium	A2	yes, medium		yes	This article is pro-Palestinian. It reports that there is little support at the G8 summit for Bush's policy for a new Palestinian leadership. Arafat plans to run in the proposed upcoming Palestinian election. This article also reports on the G8 decision regarding aid for Africa and aid to Russia to help dispose of its nuclear stockpile. The photo shows Kofi Annan trying on a gift cowboy hat. Although the G8 summit has a multi-purpose agenda, the headline focuses on Bush's Arafat policy.

7/12/02								It is newsworthy to note that on this date the Courant did not publish a relevant, medium size AP news article that appeared in the Boston Globe. See the CONCLUSION.
7/13/02	Arafat Says He Won't Step Down	Paisley Dodds (Assoc. Press)	Medium	A3	no			The report content is neutral because it reflects Arafat's position to continue as the Palestinian leader while including the USA position for new leadership. The article also reports on negotiations for Barghouti's fate and renewed violence that resulted in Palestinian casualties. The title is pro-Palestinian because it disregards the Israeli call for new Palestinian leadership as a necessary step to achieve peace.

7/13/02								It is newsworthy to note that the Boston Globe's leading page 1 headline read, on this date, "US to urge Palestinian premier" with subheading "Powell sees end to stalemate in shift to Arafat." This article goes at length to discuss how Arafat would be accommodated while a premier with authority to act would be appointed. The report points out how the approach reconciles the US and Israel position on Arafat with the views of Arab and European countries, so peace discussions could move forward.

7/16/02	U.S. Policy On Arafat Seen As "Very Hard Sell"	Robin Wright and Mary Curtius (L.A. Times) with AP report included	Medium	A2	no		yes	This article is pro-Palestinian because it says the US plan to replace Arafat, that Israel supports as well, is not favored by any other participant assembled for peace talks. It is critical of the US approach as one that is likely to fail, which is what Arafat would like to see. The article infers that the other countries support Arafat as the Palestinian leader who should not be replaced as a result of outside influence.

7/23/01	Israeli Strike Kills 11 In Gaza	Molly Moore (Wash. Post)	Large	A2	yes, large		yes	The article is pro-Palestinian because it reports on Palestinian civilians that were killed or injured as a result of an Israeli F-16 warplane attack against the Hamas military leader in Gaza. It also reports Hamas was discussing conditions for ceasing suicide bombing attacks. Israel is then portrayed as the aggressor and the Palestinians as victims. The article reports that Israel said that the Hamas leader was responsible for many attacks against Israel. The article title is pro-Palestinian for a similar reason. The photo shows Palestinians removing the body of a woman from her damaged house after it was hit by fire from the F-16.

7/24/02	Israeli Strike Derails Accord	John Anderson and Molly Moore (Wash. Post)	Large	A1 and A4	yes, large		yes	This article is pro-Palestinian. It reports the Israeli air attack on residential apartment buildings in Gaza that killed 15 people along with the Hamas military leader has put a halt to proposed violence cessation. The attack is likely to incite more violence against Israel. The article cites criticism from the U.S. and Israelis against the air attack. It also mentions Israeli regret for harming innocent people. The title is similarly pro-Palestinian. The photo is pro-Palestinian because it draws sympathy with the Palestinian cause. The photo shows a Palestinian man in a funeral procession carrying the body of a 2-month-old baby killed in the Israeli missile strike.
